Charles-Town: Printed by PETER TIMOTHY, Printer to the Honourable the Commons House of Assembly,

At his OFFICE, removed from the BAY into BROAD-STREET, the Corner of GADSDEN's ALLEY, a few Doors above the Exchange: Where Advertisements for this Gazette, Letters of Intelligence, &c. will be received, and all Kinds of Printing Work done with Accuracy and all possible Dispatch; and where he will soon have for Sale, a SUPPLY of all the different Kinds of BLANKS used in this Colony.

CHARLES-TOWN, MARCH 13.

OUR last Advices from the Northern Colonies (by Capt. Wright, who arrived here Yesterday, & left Philadelphia the 5th Inst.) are, That they all continue firm, and united, in their Adherence to, and carrying into the fullest Execution, every Article of the Association entered into by the late Continental Congress. That India Teas are no longer imported or used—the Slave Trade is wholly discontinued—several Vessels with British Goods have been sent back again—Arts and Manufactures are establishing and promoting, with a Zeal and Diligence which promises Success, particularly in the Cotton, Woollen, and Hard-ware Branches;—to encourage which, and the making of Gun-powder, considerable Premiums are offered:—the Committees in every Colony are extremely watchful to observe the Conduct of all Persons, touching the Association—and Donations continued to be made, and remitted, for the further Relief of the suffering People in Boston and the Massachusetts-Bay, with a Liberality that reflects great Honour upon the respective Colonies.

By the Eagle Packet Boat, which arrived here Yesterday, with Advices from London to the 14th of January, we have no certain Accounts what is likely to be determined in Regard to the present Situation of Affairs in America. These Affairs were to come under the Consideration of Parliament the 19th of that Month; but, from the great Majority that appeared, very early in the Session, in Favour of a Question unfavourable to us, we have no Reason to look for Relief, but in our own Virtue, Firmness and Unanimity: The Merchants of London had indeed prepared a Petition, drawn up in very cautious Terms, and this Example was likely to be followed by several other Bodies—but Petitions have lately become Waste-Paper. If our Information can be depended on, the West-India Merchants were the first who moved in the Petition; and a Finger from the North afterwards pointed to the North-American Merchants to join them.—Henry Kelly, Esq; an eminent Merchant of London, is arrived here, in the said Packet, on his Way to the Northward.

On Monday last His Majesty's Sloop Tamar, commanded by Capt. Thornborough, fell down into Rebel-Road, where she remains.

The Incorporated FELLOWSHIP SOCIETY held their Anniversary Meeting on Wednesday last. They went in Procession to St. Michael's Church, where a Sermon adapted to the Design of their laudable Institution was preached, an Anthem (set to Music by Mr. Hartley) performed, and upwards of £.500 contributed to their Charity Fund. The Officers elected for the ensuing Year, are, THOMAS GRIMBALL, jun. Esq; President; ISAAC HUGER, and SAMUEL PRIOLEAU, Esqrs. Wardens; Mr. ALEXANDER ALEXANDER, Secretary; Messrs. JOHN BADDELEY and JOHN BLAKE, Stewards.

On Thursday last the following Gentlemen were nominated to collect and receive Donations from the Inhabitants of this Town, for the further Relief of the People of Boston, &c. viz. Mr. JOHN NEUFVILLE, Mr. DANIEL LEGARE, sen. and ISAAC HUGER, Esq; for the Parish of St. Philip; and Mr. THOMAS CORBETT, THOMAS HEYWARD, junior, Esquire; and Mr. JOSEPH VEREE, for the Parish of St. Michael: To whom the Donations, collected by the Committees, in the several Country Parishes, are requested to be remitted, as soon as possible, that the same may be shipped before the Return of our Delegates to the ensuing Congress, which is to be held the Beginning of May next.

Yesterday the Ship Pallas, Capt. John Turner, one of our constant Traders (built and owned here) returned from London, without a single Piece of Merchandize—unless a little Shetland Horse, sent as a Present, can be deemed such, and which however will not be received here.

We are informed, that the Ship Happy Janet, Capt. Petticrew, which sailed from hence the 28th past, has been obliged to put into the Port of Sunbury, in Georgia.

The Export of Rice from this Port, to this Day inclusive, amounts to 80,708 Tierces.

SALEM, FEBRUARY 28.

LAST Sabbath the peace of the town was disturbed by the coming of a regiment of the King's troops, the particulars relative to which are as follows.—A transport arrived at Marblehead, apparently manned as usual. Between two and three o'clock (as soon as the people had gone to Meeting) the decks were covered with soldiers, who having loaded and fixed their bayonets, landed with great dispatch, and instantly marched off: some of the inhabitants suspecting they were bound to Salem, to seize some materials there preparing for an artillery, dispatched several messengers to inform us of it. These materials were in the north side of the North river, and to come at them, it was necessary to cross a bridge, one part of which was made to draw up to let vessels pass. The inhabitants kept a look-out for the appearance of the troops. The van guard arrived, and took their route down town as far as the long wharf, perhaps to decoy the inhabitants thither, away from the place to which the main body was destined. The main body arrived soon after, and halted a few minutes at the town house. It is said, enquiry was immediately made by some of the officers for a half-brother of Col. Browne, the mandamus counsellor. Be this as it may, he was soon whispering in the Colonel's ear, in the front of the regiment, and when he parted from the Col. the regiment marched with a quick pace towards the north bridge; just before their entering upon which the bridge was pulled up. The regiment however pushed on till they came to the bridge, not observing, as it seemed, that it was drawn up. The Colonel expressed some surprize; and turning about, ordered an officer to face his company to a body of men standing on a wharf on the other side the drawbridge, and to fire. One of our townsmen (who had kept along side the Col. from the time he marched from his own house) told him he had better not fire, that he had no right to fire without further orders, and if you do fire (said he) you will be all dead men. The company neither faced nor fired. The Col. retired to the centre of his regiment, assembled his officers, and held a consultation; which being ended, he advanced a little, and declared he would maintain his ground, and go over the bridge if it was a month first. The same townsman replied, he might stay there as long as he pleased, no one cared for that. The half-brother before mentioned (it is said) made towards the bridge, but seeing the draw-bridge up, said, "It is all over with us." He has since disappeared. Mean while two large gundolas that lay aground, for it was low water, were scuttled, lest they should cross the channel in them. But whilst one gentleman with his assistants, was scuttling his own gundola, a party of about twenty soldiers jumped into it, and with their bayonets charged against our unarmed townsmen, some of whom they pricked, compelled them to quit it; but before this, a sufficient hole was made in the bottom.

This attack of the soldiers, and some other occurrences, occasioned a little bickering, but by the interposition of some of the inhabitants, the disputes subsided. At length some gentleman asked the Col. what was his design in making this movement, and why he would cross the bridge? He said I have orders to cross it, and he would cross it, if he lost his life with the lives of all his men. And asked why the King's highway was obstructed? He was told it was not the King's road, but the property of the inhabitants, who had a right to do what they pleased with it. Finally the Col. said he must go over; and if the bridge was let down, so as he might pass, he pledged his honour he would march not above thirty rods beyond it, and then immediately return.

The regiment had now been at the bridge about an hour and an half; and every thing being secured, the inhabitants directed the bridge might be let down. The regiment immediately passed over, marched a few rods, returned, and with great expedition went back to Marblehead, where they went on board the transport without delay. When all the circumstances are considered, there can remain no doubt, that the sole purpose of this manœuvre was to steal away the artillery materials.

It is regretted that an officer of Col. Leslie's acknowledged worth, should be obliged, in obedience to his orders, to come upon so pitiful an errand. Various reports were spread abroad respecting the troops; the country was alarmed, and one company arrived in arms from Danvers, just as the troops left the town. We immmediately dispatched messengers to the neighbouring towns, to save them the trouble of coming in; but the alarm flew like lightning (and fame, doubtless, magnified the first simple reports) so that great numbers were in arms, and some on their march, before our messengers arrived.

RICHARD MAGRATH,

CABINET-MAKER,

TAKES this Opportunity of returning his most grateful Thanks to his kind Friends, for the many Favours conferred on him by them: He at the same Time acquaints them, that he is obliged to continue following his Business; as the Times do not admit of his settling his Affairs, nor do his Circumstances enable him to stand still to wait for better: he therefore humbly begs the Continuance of his Friends former Kindness, as well as of the Public, and assures them, that it shall be his constant Study to merit their Favours, by putting into their Hands sound and honest Work, at the lowest Prices he can possibly sell for; and for the better Reception of the Ladies and Gentlemen, he has moved from King-street to Broad-street, almost opposite to JOHN RUTLEDGE, Esq. He hopes that such Gentlemen as are indebted to him, will not be offended at his demanding their Notes, as there is not a Pound he owes, but what he is obliged to pay Interest for, which makes a great Consumption in the small Profits of his Business.

I INTEND to leave this Province in a short Time.

JOHN McLERAN.

MARCH 7, 1775.

THOMAS GRIFFITH,

BEING returned from Philadelphia, is now removed to his RIDING-SCHOOL on the Green, to the West of Colonel PINCKNEY's new House, where he breaks HORSES, &c. either for the Road or Menage, and to teach Gentlemen and Ladies to ride the same as is practised in the best Schools in London.—He will, if desired, teach the newest Manual and Horse Exercise, the Horse Evolutions and Manœuvres, on reasonable Terms.

MARY GRIFFITH will clean Blonds and Gauzes, point Brussels, Mechlin and Minionet Laces to look like new. She has to dispose of, some Net Hoods and Silk Purses, and will mend and rivet Fans.

WANTED, A young active NEGRO BOY, by the Month; if he has been used to Horses, the more agreeable.

ALL Persons whatsoever having any Demands on the Estates of Thomas Broughton, of St. John's Parish, Berkley-County, and Sarah Edmonds, of the same Parish, deceased, are desired to bring them in, properly attested:—and those anywise indebted to either of said Estates, are requested to make immediate Payment, to

NICHOLAS SMITH,

JEWELLER and GOLDSMITH, from LONDON,

CONTINUES to carry on the Business as usual, in the House late Smith & Smithson's, opposite the Cross-Keys, in King-street; where he solicits the further Encouragement of his Friends and the Public, and flatters himself with Success, as no Endeavours shall be wanting to merit their Favours.

He has by him a neat Assortment of JEWELLERY GOODS, which he is determined to sell at a very small Advance, for Cash or short Credit.—WATCHES repaired and cleaned in the best Manner, and on the shortest Notice.

THE Co-Partnership between SMITH & SMITHSON being, by mutual Consent, dissolved, it is therefore hoped, all Persons indebted to them, will pay due Attention to this Advertisement, to prevent disagreeable Applications, as the Nature of their Connections require an immediate Settlement of their Affairs.

At SOUTH-BAY,

BEING now capable of admitting Veſſels of any Burthen, to load or unload at it, the Subſcriber will be obliged to all thoſe Perſons who will favour the ſaid Wharf with their Buſineſs, as he has been at great Expence and Trouble in making it convenient, eſpecially to Boats that paſs down Aſhley River; which by unloading there, will avoid the many Riſks and Inconveniences they are expoſed to by going round White Point, and which are very obvious to every diſcerning Perſon, more particularly open Boats: And, as it is of Public Utility, by being a Security to the South-Weſt Side of the Town, he hopes for the Public Patronage.

His Friends, the PLANTERS, need not be under any Apprehenſions of RICE not ſelling as well there as at any other Wharf, as has been experienced during the laſt and preſent Year, as very little Rice has been ſtored there from the quick Sale of what has been landed there: And having had Aſſurances from many reſpectable Gentlemen, both in the Planting and Mercantile Intereſt, of their friendly Intentions to ſend Veſſels there to load, being convinced of the Safety of that River, and the Conveniency of the Wharf and Stores, with the Diſpatch they meet with; he likewiſe flatters himſelf, that the many Perſons that uſe it as a Ferry, and do not land their Crops there, will not have any Objections to contribute to the Support of it, by an annual ſubſcription.

He has fixed a SCALE-HOUSE at the Head of the Wharf, for the more convenient weighing of Rice that may be ſold on landing and to be immediately ſhipped, and will, as ſoon as it is neceſſary, add to the Number of Stores.

From the Quantity of LUMBER already ſhipped from thence, it is evident no Place in Town is more proper for that Article, as well as for NAVAL STORES.

All Veſſels ſhall, for their BALLAST, be entitled to their Wharfage and Water, with Liberty to heave down and clean, as a proper Place is fixed for that Purpoſe, and to which the Pilot-Boats are alſo welcome.

WILLIAM GIBBES.
